THE DILLARDITE

Presented by the Senior
Class of DILLARD HIGH SCHOOL
Goldsboro, North Carolina

FOREWORD

In this modern era, there are missiles, jets, atomic and nuclear power, rockets and satellites that are familiar to us . . . typical but dignified teenagers . . . called "Seniors" . . . who are about to be spun into orbit.

Ye, we're typical high school students . . . launched four years ago . . . securely anchored to our seats . . . well . . . to try to acquire knowledge of unfamiliar instruments that surround us in our spaceship.

Now we anxiously await in our nose-cone . . . that . . . well . . . final thrust in space. Yes, we do have a knowledge of this new space world . . . yet . . . we have to meet many experiences . . . responsibilities . . . challenges it offers.

Many Seniors will go to other planets . . . maybe to settle down . . . or launch again . . . maybe to new heights.

Well, here is your book, "the Dillardite," to relive that wonderful ride . . . in our spaceship . . . many joys . . . hardships and unforgettable moments encountered during those years.

We the staff, hope you will share with us our interpretation of . . . well . . . "That Old Dillard Spirit."

Editor-in-chief

SUPERINTENDENT'S

MESSAGE

You are to be congratulated on the fine yearbook you have produced. It reflects the spirit of cooperation, the diligent effort put forth and the patience you have shown in completing this project.

As you graduate and enter the adult world around you it will be beneficial to you to remember that your commencement is, as the word implies, a beginning as well as an opportunity to continue your development. It will become increasingly important for you to set your mind upon your task and to concentrate upon your purpose.

Your life is a trust from God and should be lived in a way that will meet with His approval. Your task is to utilize his gifts to you--your heart, your hand, your brain and your soul--and to develop them to the utmost.

Let me extend to you at this time every good wish for continued success and happiness.

M. H. Shope

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Greetings Class of 1961:

My heartiest congratulations to each of you for your successful climb to this point in your educational ladder. May you long remember the helpful steps that you took to make this your crowning year in your career as a high school student!

I have been most pleased with the progress, seriousness of purpose, and general initiative of the Class of 1961. We know that you represent the largest class in the history of our School. We hope that you represent the class having received the most in "quality education." More has been offered to you than to any other class in the history of Dillard High School.

Let the work recorded in this, your DILLARDITE, be a reminder of the pleasant and eventful years you studied at Dillard High School. I shall reflect with happiness upon the three years as co-advisor of your class. I shall cherish the cooperation and memories of you as the first class to graduate under my principalship.

DEDICATION

To one who has understood our problems, and who has given immeasurable amounts of energy, guidance, and resourcefulness to make our school life pleasant and successful. His determined effort to make us satisfied and happy shall always be remembered as one of our most precious high school memories. Words cannot express our appreciation for his various contributions; but to show how much we love, honor, and respect him, we dedicate the '61 DILLARDITE to our principal, Mr. John Henry Wooten.

In Memoriam

To the one who has willingly served us well we dedicate this portion of the Dillardite to Mr. E. A. House.

Mr. E. A. House was born in Asheville, North Carolina, December 25, 1908. He attended and graduated from Stephen's Lee High School, University, Charlotte, North Carolina where he received his B.S. degree and received his Masters degree from the University of Conn.

Mr. House began his educational duties at E.E. Smith High School of Kenansville, North Carolina. He served for eleven years as principal of Dudley Elementary School.

In 1944 Mr. House came to Goldsboro and served as Coach and assistant principal at Dillard High School and later became Health and Physical Education Co-ordinator and his last position was that of Supervisor of instructions for the Goldsboro City Schools. His participation in the many civic activities of Goldsboro and the state were most outstanding. He served as Secretary of the North Carolina Athletic Association for a number of years.

It was indeed inspiring to have had Mr. House serve his community, state, and nation in civic, religious and educational affairs.

THOSE UNFORGETTABLE LYRICS

ODE TO DILLARD

By Henrietta Johnson

Tune: God of Our Fathers

We sing our song of loyalty, Dillard our alma mater true.
Dillard we love, our alma mater dear
Faithful and true, with strength throughout each year.
Dillard we serve in humble thankfulness
Striving to show that we can do our best.

Parents our lives and hearts to thee we give,
You gave us courage and the will to live.
Teachers and friends whose love and loyalty,
Gave us the knowledge that will set us free.

We stand united reaching for our goal,
As we march on success will soon unfold.
Dillard we hail thee as our guiding light,
To lead us onward toward a future bright.

God bless these walls, and may they ever stand,
Guiding us with a strong and mighty hand.
And keep them safe forever night and day,
We lift our voices in eternal praise.
We sing our song, We sing our song, Dillard we sing
to thee.

Class Motto: We sail the sea of ambition to anchor
in the harbor of success.

Class colors: Light blue and white
Class flower: American beauty rose

GREAT ACHIEVEMENTS

(From the Archives of Dillard
High School--year--2061)

BOTH PAST AND PRESENT

The history of the graduating class of nineteen hundred and sixty one was an extraordinary one filled with great scholars, musicians, athletic competition, vivacious individuals unprofessionally skilled in the art of dancing, and, of course, honors accompanied with past deeds. This class was the first four-year class to graduate from the newly completed institution. This in itself might have been an omen of good luck to the class. As I briefly flip my fingers through the pages of their history--I come to the year of nineteen-hundred and fifty seven. It was a great year for the freshmen of this institution. Binnie Barnes reigned as homecoming queen. Judging from this blurred picture, it was a right choice. Joseph Gaynor was the president of the class. 1958-59 was another great year for the more matured and thoughtful sophomores of Dillard. Eleven of them became probationary members of the National Honor Society. Marie Pouncey was "Miss Sweetheart" of the Royal Knights. Determined not to be outdone, Sybil Scott from that class was "Miss Homecoming." It seems that this class had excellent participation in all the activities of Dillard.

1959-60--A year that was eagerly awaited by all persons--The Junior Year!! This year topped all years for this class. Joseph Gaynor was president of the class. Under his guidance, the class prospered. Twenty-one Juniors became active members of the Honor Society. Indeed, this was a record performance. This class had excellent participation in sports--The class rallied again and Sandra Best was "Miss Homecoming." At the end of the year, Joseph Gaynor was chosen president of the student council and James Isler, president of the class. It was a wonderful year with a wonderful ending.

As I thumb into 1960-61, I see that the class of '61 were eagerly preparing for classes, college, taking exams, and of course, there was the usual excitement of a Senior class. Although this is nothing unusual for the class, Sybil Scott thundered into first place as "Miss Homecoming." Earl Glenn was chosen Editor of the yearbook, John Kirk, as I see, was editor of the school paper, the Dillard High News. Henrietta Johnson wrote the class song, "Ode to Dillard," and as I said, the usual excitement of a senior class. The colors of the class were light blue and white, and the flower was the American beauty rose.

Under the supervision of the faculty advisors, Mrs. D. D. Jones, Mr. R. James, Mrs. J. B. Carr, Mr. J. E. Green, and Mrs. T. O. Brown, some of the members of this class "anchored in the harbor of success and were great figures in their time.

So I'll put this great volume back, and a word to the class of 2061, follow in the class of '61's footsteps, and Success will be yours.

John Kirk XX-Historian of the Archives

OUR DREAMS IN POETRY

CLASS POEM OF 1961

The Great Adventure
(by Bobby Borah)

- I. As we, the Senior Class, begin
To travel on our way
To find our place on this God's earth
And make a brighter day,
We feel a sense of pride
And yet we also find
Before us is a challenge
Where we all find peace of mind.
- II. A challenge and a promise
To the one who dares to try
To seek the mysteries beyond
The promises that lie
Deep in the imagination of each
Ambition Spurs him on
With strength inside, each traveler feels
Victory is yet to be won.
- III. Endebted are we to our school,
Our parents, every friend
Who helped us on our long, long, way
Our gratitude has no end.
- IV. Our struggles will be "dreams-come-true"
If we will only wait
And look to God the Giver of all things that we call great.
But now we wait with purpose
Wondering what each aim will be
Yet we will try to be the best
Wherever our aims will lead.
- V. To teachers, and our parents
And to each and every friend
Remember to say this prayer for us
"God Bless Thee To The End."
